

Project Officer (Social Worker)

Aboriginal Community
Excellent salary packaging and incentives
You can make a difference

We currently have a Project Officer position available with a facility, in a well established Aboriginal Community based corporation in regional Northern Territory.

This 'team leader' position requires a highly skilled and experienced Social Worker who can provide leadership and support to the organisation. You will be required to lead Aboriginal Community Workers with coordinating the health programmes to the community by educating, mentoring and supporting all that are involved.

The key areas of focus are Social & Emotional Wellbeing, ATOD and Nutrition.

To be successful in this role, you will have:

- Qualifications and/or experience in Social Work in the core areas of focus
 - Counselling and Case Management Focus and experience
- An understanding of and commitment to Aboriginal specific service delivery
- Proven leadership skills and a demonstrated ability to train, motivate, supervise and empower a team.
 - Teamwork, Integrity and Commitment
 - Organisational and Administrative skills
 - A current drivers' license or ability to obtain one.

You will be under the direction of a well respected Manager. A fantastic salary and remote location package is on offer!

It would be highly advantageous if you have experience living and working in remote/and or rural location.
